Billing Consent for Telehealth Services

Delivery of Medical Services can include any actions taken by your doctor that are related to your care as a patient that may include, but are not limited to, telephone calls, video conferencing, electronic messaging (email, text, and Portal communications), “stored-and-shared” information provided by the patient (photos/videos).

I consent to Excelsis billing for services provided via electronic and telephonic communication. I understand that I can revoke this consent anytime and this will not affect my overall ability to continue treatment with my doctor(s).
